

Submit Ideas for Presentations, Case Studies by Sept. 15

Help shape the biggest brownfield event of the year. The National Brownfield Associations is seeking breakout session ideas and innovative case studies for THE BIG DEAL 2009, March 24 and 25 in Phoenix, AZ. Share your expertise with some 1,200 brownfield, green build and real estate professionals.

We are looking for engaging presentations that are content-rich and use creativity to encourage audience participation. In addition, for a track at the conference devoted to case studies, we seek the best case studies that can show lessons learned from industrial origin to industrial reuse, commercial retail, commercial office, residential, mixed use and parks/open space.

The deadline for submissions has been extended to September 15, 2008. Finalists will be selected by September 30, 2008. For more information and a submission form, visit www.brownfieldassociation.org
